Is still selling groceries—the rains came and the winds blew. The flood has come and gone. I am a little disfigured from the effects of the flood but am still in the ring. Competition is said to be the life of trade, the more competition we have the cheaper we sell—I have just received a part of a car of Cabbage, Onions and Potatoes. These will be sold very cheap, nearly like giving them away. I am still hungry for Chickens and Eggs. My trade is still improving every day. Why? Because I sell good Groceries for little money, also have fresh roasted peanuts 5 cents a sack, 5 sacks up to 50¢. Also have a complete line of French Harps 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30 and up to 50¢.

NO DEFINITE NEWS.

Anxiety prevails regarding the British at Ladysmith.

REPORTS CONFLICT.

Boers Surround Kimberley With Six Thousand Men—Naval Lieutenant Badly Wounded—The British Loss at Dundee.

London, Nov. 2.—The brief news from Ladysmith since Tuesday night does not relieve the anxiety prevailing regarding the position of the British army at Ladysmith.

The war office has no information that Major General Buller, the British commander in South Africa, has left Cape Town.

Colenso, in the rear of General White's force, it is believed will be well defended by a composite of naval and military corps and it is understood two naval 12-pounders are mounted near the bridge over Tugela, one of the most vulnerable points on the long railroad from Ladysmith to Pietermaritzburg, ought to be able to defend it and prevent its destruction.

If the Boers succeeded in destroying this bridge it means interruption of railroad communication with Ladysmith for an indefinite period. While Boer

TYPE OF BOERS.

Attempts in this direction is not confirmed, it is claimed they may be expected momentarily, and the reported steady shelling of Ladysmith, it is added, points to the intention of the Boer commanders to keep General White occupied while the strategy is carried out.

The only information received from the seat of war in addition to the brief dispatch from General White, saying he was well and holding his position, were the list of casualties.

Official telegrams reporting the condition of the wounded at Kimberley add that Colonel Kekewith, the British commander there, learned from various sources that the Boer losses on the occasion of the late sortie of British troops from Kimberley were very heavy.

Newspapers here continue to express keen pleasure at the sympathy of the United States.

Boers Surround Kimberley. Postown, Cape Colony, Nov. 2.—Magistrate Harmsworth has arrived here from Klapdans and reports that there are 6000 Boers around Kimberley, and all roads are strictly patrolled. He says he passed close enough to Kimberley to see searchlights, and was informed the defenders of Kimberley were satisfied they could hold out, but are wearied with inactivity and hoped that a relieving force would soon arrive.

Stories of Boers victories spread rapidly along the western border, and Magistrate Harmsworth estimates that over half of the Dutch residents of Bechuanaland and Griqualand will join the Boers after a declaration of annexation.

Lieutenant Badly Wounded.

London, Nov. 2.—The war office has issued the following dispatch from the chief of staff at Ladysmith:

"Ladysmith, Nov. 1.—Lieutenant Egerton, of the cruiser Powerful, was dangerously wounded this morning by a shell in the left knee and right foot. His life is in no danger at present."

It is inferred from this dispatch that the artillery duel between the Boers and British continues as Lieutenant Egerton was gunnery lieutenant with the big naval guns.

No Further Information.

London, Nov. 2.—The war office officially declares it has no information of any further engagement at Ladysmith or of the British victory reported in New York.

Two Places Reported Taken. Pietermaritzburg, Nov. 2.—It is reported that the Boers are occupying parts of Zululand and that they have taken Pomeroy, 50 miles from Greytown.

British Battleship Launched. Chatham, Eng., Nov. 2.—The launching of the British firstclass battleship Venera here was accompanied by scenes of unusual enthusiasm. The christening was performed by Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, formerly Miss Endicott of Washington, who was accompanied by her husband, and they received a great ovation.

Boers at Bethune Bridge. Cape Town, Nov. 2.—It is asserted that 3000 Boers are collected at Bethune bridge under Field Cornet Dutot. The Orange river is in full flood and fording is reported to be impossible.

British Dead and Wounded. London, Nov. 2.—A special dispatch from Ladysmith says 20 British dead and 100 wounded have been counted on the scene of Monday's disaster, while 870 prisoners were sent to Pretoria.

Loss at Dundee. London, Nov. 2.—Another list of casualties at Dundee has been issued by the war office. It gives 82 noncommissioned officers and men of the Dublin fusiliers missing, indicating that the Boers captured many more fusiliers than they did hussars.

Asks for Lists of Prisoners. Washington, Nov. 2.—The British government has asked the Boer government to permit Mr. Macrur, the United States consul at Pretoria, to transmit once each week the list of British prisoners at Pretoria, with a statement of their condition.

Dewey's Wedding. Washington, Nov. 2.—The wedding of Admiral Dewey and Mrs. Hazen will be performed by either Archbishop Keane, or Cardinal Gibbons. Some say the wedding will be a brilliant private affair, others that it will be a brilliant church affair. Some of Mrs. Hazen's friends say that in all probability Mrs. Hazen would prefer to be married at the residence of her mother's Mrs. Washington McLean. Mrs. Hazen was received into the Catholic church by Archbishop Keane about six years ago. She was raised a Presbyterian, but was attending St. John's Episcopal church at the time of her conversion.

American Banks at Manila. Washington, Nov. 2.—Recent information received at the war department from Manila shows that there is a good prospect for the establishment of at least four American banks in that city within a short time. Petitions have been prepared for the presentation to congress at the next session, asking for charters for three different national banks. It is also said that J. P. Morgan & Co. of New York, will establish a branch or agency there. The deputy collector of customs at Manila, Colonel Colton, is mentioned in connection with the presidency of one of the banks.

An Oyster Trust. New York, Nov. 2.—The oyster men of Long Island sound are said to be preparing to consolidate their interests. Such an attempt was made last spring, but the movement proved unsuccessful, because many of the 22 dealers who had combined became afraid of being sold out by other members of the union and began cutting prices. The present movement is said to deal with interests capitalized as high as $80,000,000. Such a combination will save about $100,000 a year, it is said, and will protect the season from present downward drift in prices.

Snake With Two Heads. Independence, Kas., Nov. 2.—Thomas Hayden of Liberty township, brought to this city a small snake with two perfectly formed heads. There is not the slightest appearance of malformation, but the two heads are as perfectly joined in the neck immediately back of the head and appear as natural as though the creature came from a family of 2-headed snakes. Mr. Hayden is one of the trustees of the new county high school and has had the snake placed in the museum of that institution, where an effort will be made to keep it alive.

Twelve Prisoners Escaped.

Denison, Tex., Nov. 2.—Twelve prisoners escaped last night at the smallpox detention camp near Sherman, where the prisoners were confined in a steel cage. Among them were four men charged with murder and one of them, Bob Sims, a negro, under death sentence for the murder of Arrie Taylor in Sherman, was in the party of prisoners to escape but returned to the Sherman jail and gave himself up, but the others escaped.

Blizzard at St. Louis. St. Louis, Nov. 2.—A veritable blizzard is raging here. Snow is falling. The snow storm was accompanied by a high wind and a decided drop in the temperature.

DEMORALIZING REBELS.

Advance of Americans Causing the Filipinos to Lose Courage.

Manila, Nov. 2.—All signs show that General Young's rapid advance is demoralizing the insurgents northward. Prisoners report them to be fleeing to the hills. There are many deserters and sick men, and the former are taking their arms to the Americans. The cavalry's rapid movements are a puzzle to the insurgents who think that the Americans in striking so many places must have overwhelming forces. Aguinaldo is personally conducting the campaign. He is asking the people for rice and is trying to replenish the army with recruits but without success.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Woman Killed and Two Men Hurt in Ellis County.

Ennis, Tex., Nov. 2.—News has reached here of a most deplorable accident which happened in the eastern part of the county Tuesday evening, resulting in the death of a woman and the injuring of two men.

Frank Horsey runs a place and runs a sawmill on the west bank of the Trinity river, just above the new bridge. They were killing hogs there and Horsey's wife was assisting about the work. A hog was hoisted and swung on the large limb of a tree preparatory to dressing when the limb broke and struck the woman on the head, causing almost instant death.

One man had an arm broken and another man was struck in the back and severely hurt.

YELLOW FEVER.

Four New Cases.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 2.—Four new cases of yellow fever were announced at Jackson today. The cold wave has arrived, the thermometer falling rapidly. Interior towns are lifting their quarantines and by Saturday traffic on all railroads out of Jackson will be removed. Up to date there has been 60 cases of fever in this city and 10 deaths.

Fever Run Its Course.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Reports to Surgeon Wyman of the marine hospital service, indicate that the yellow fever epidemic which has prevailed at Key West for the past six weeks, has about run its course. Only one or two cases a day are now reported and a good breeze has been blowing for the past two weeks, which has had a beneficial influence. The reports also are to the effect that the detention hospital at Dry Tortugas has been closed because of the absence of patients.

Reports from Miami are not so encouraging. Five new cases were discovered there Tuesday and two deaths were reported.

State Again Wins.

San Antonio, Nov. 2.—The fourth court of civil appeals has handed down a decision affirming the judgment of the thirty-seventh district court in the case of the state of Texas vs. San Antonio Gas company for forfeiture of charter and for appointment of a receiver because of the entering into an electric light trust by the gas company, which also furnishes electric light and power. District Judge Robert B. Green in August rendered judgment against the gas company and named Ben M. Hammond as receiver. The gas company appealed and the opinion affirms the judgment of the district court. The case will be taken to the United States supreme court.

To Curb the Rio Grande.

Sions City, Io., Nov. 2.—Mexican boundary commissioner, Senor Jacobo Blanco, whose headquarters are at El Paso, Tex., is in the city for the purpose of studying the various methods of curbing the Missouri river. Senor Blanco hopes to make use of this knowledge attained in keeping the Rio Grande within its channel and thus preventing the rise of the troublesome boundary question.

Army Casualties.

Washington, Nov. 2.—A recapitulation of the casualties in actions and deaths in the regular and volunteer army between May 1, 1898 and June 30, 1899 contained in the annual report of the adjutant general of the army shows a grand total of 10,076 men. The casualty list alone aggregates 4,454, of whom 35 are officers and 458 enlisted men were killed and 197 officers and 2764 enlisted men wounded.

Little Rock Quarantine Lifted.

Little Rock, Nov. 1.—The board of health of Hot Springs visited Little Rock to make a personal investigation of the situation, and upon its return ordered the lifting of the smallpox quarantine against this city, which had been established on Saturday, as they did not consider that the number of cases here made such an extreme case necessary.

Suit of Brown Democrats.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 2.—United States Senator W. J. Debo has been admitted to practice in the Kentucky court of appeals. It is understood that Debo desires to assist anti-Goebel Democrats in the suit filed in the court of appeals compelling county election boards to give Brown Democrats representation in appointments of precinct election officers.

A Territory Killing.

Ardmore, I. T., Nov. 2.—Deputy Marshal Chris Marsden and a guard brought in Ben Beaver on a charge of murder. Beaver is accused of killing his father-in-law, J. W. Law, at Chickasha. Both parties are well known.

Slosson Won.

New York, Nov. 2.—Slosson won the professional billiard match at Madison Square garden, Schaefer being beaten by 900 points to 737.

REBELS DEFEATED.

Government Troops in Colombia Successful in a River Fight.

Panama, Nov. 2.—A French steamer arriving from Colon brought official details of an important naval engagement between the government forces and the revolutionists on Magdalena river at Puerto, Nacional, on Oct. 24. The government forces were on the armored steamers Hercules and Colombia, which were well fitted up and armed for war purposes. The rebels had several river boats which they had seized, but the vessels were not armored in any way and were wholly unprovided with fighting facilities. The battle lasted more than four hours and the fighting was very severe. The revolutionists fought like heroes, but the odds against them were too great and were finally forced to yield.

The Columbia's machinery was disabled after the first shot was fired. The rebels on the powerful dredge Cristobal Colon were just about to board the disabled steamer in the middle of the river when the Hercules steamed up the river and shot at close quarter from her Hotchkiss gun and sunk the dredge with all on board. More than 200 men were killed in the desperate battle. All accounts agree the affair was disastrous to the revolutionists, though the government loss was very heavy.

The steamers Elma, Cianeros, Baranilla and Elbers were recaptured by the government forces and towed down the river almost worthless from the effect of the heavy fire poured into them.

The Prosecution Rested.

Moscow, Ida., Nov. 2.—The prosecution has rested its case against the Coeur d'Alene prisoners on trial for obstructing the mails. All but three of the state's witnesses have testified. Prosecutor Cozier gave as an explanation for the absence of these that they had been delayed owing to sickness, but from information received he expected that they should arrive here in time to appear in court here. He suggested that in the meantime to prevent delay, the defense could produce its witnesses. This method of proceeding was objected to by Colonel Reddy, on the ground that it would be disadvantageous to the defendants. This point was settled by Judge Beatty excusing the jury, when Mr. Cozier stated to Mr. Reddy what he intended to prove by the absent witnesses on their arrival.

Maher and McCoy to Fight.

New York, Nov. 2.—The match between Peter Maher and "Kid" McCoy scheduled to take place at Coney Island, Nov. 30, was clinched Wednesday night. As a guarantee of good faith Maher and McCoy have each posted $1000 with Jim Wakeley to insure their appearance in the ring. According to the articles of agreement signed by the principals, they will fight 25 rounds at catch weights for a purse of $20,000. Maher will begin training Saturday at Westchester. McCoy will receive his preparation for battle at William Muldoon's farm at White Plains.

Broomcorn $100 a Ton.

Casey, Ills., Nov. 2.—A procession of 42 wagons, making over 60 tons, of broomcorn, headed by a band of music, entered the city from Johnson township, south, and was delivered to the Mikel Wiley company, the price paid being $100 per ton. The parade went through the principle streets, which were decorated with flags, bunting, mottoes etc., and presented a pleasing scene. A vast amount of corn also came in from the north. The price paid Tuesday was $115 per ton. Over 1000 tons have been grown in this vicinity this year, the Mikel Wiley company alone having paid out about $40,000 for brush to date.

Cotton Belt Prospect.

Memphis, Nov. 2.—The Commercial Appeal says: "It is said that the Cotton Belt will be running into Houston and Galveston by Jan. 1. The entry into Houston is to be accomplished either by the lease or purchase of the Houston, East and West Texas road between Lufkin and Houston. In case the road is purchased the main line of the Cotton Belt will be via Shreveport and the general offices of road will be removed from Tyler to Houston or Dallas. If the entry into Houston is secured the Cotton Belt will reach Galveston over the Galveston, Houston and Henderson."

The Government's Dividend.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Attorney General Griggs has turned into the treasury $821,897, which is the government's share of a dividend declared by the receiver of the Union Pacific railway. The right of the government to participate in this dividend was recently established by the judgment of the United States court at St. Paul. This sum is in addition to the amount agreed to be paid the government in settlement of its claims against the Union Pacific company.

Burned to Death.

Joplin, Mo., Nov. 2.—News reached here that Mrs. Pilligre and two children were burned to death near Tiff, McDonald county. It seems that the baby fell into a caldron of hot apple butter and the mother and another child was fatally burned trying to rescue the child. The baby was dead when taken out and the other two members of the family died soon afterward.

Found Dead at Home.

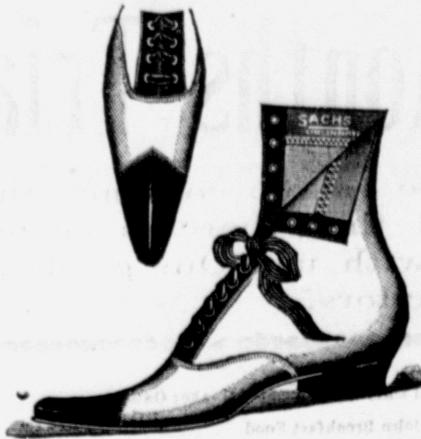

Kerrville, Tex., Nov. 2.—Ed Stokes, living about 20 miles above Kerrville, was found dead at his home with a bullet through his head. Deceased was cleaning his gun and from the position of the body it is assumed that the weapon was accidentally discharged.

Ex-Governor Saunders Dead.

Omaha, Nov. 2.—Ex-Governor Saunders died here Wednesday.

A Kansas idea of Beauty.

When the hour came for the Kansas legislature to close the other day the executive council took the somewhat remarkable precaution of stationing detectives at every exit of the state house with instructions to see that no public property was carried away. It has been the custom in the past, it seems for a vast number of articles, ranging from typewriters down to ink stands in value and from desks and chairs to bunches of envelopes to disappear at the end of every session and the authorities decided that for once at least this sort of stealing should be discouraged. The detectives found plenty to do and dozens of would-be thieves were forced to disgorge. The depredators were chiefly legislative employees and they excused their conduct by saying that they regarded the property taken as perquisites of their positions. "It had always been done," they said. Two or three quite wellknown members of both house and senate participated in the raid and had to endure the humiliation of handing back plunder of one sort or another. A senator who was carrying off two volumes of statutes became extremely angry when halted. He intended to return the books he declared and was only taking them away for temporary purposes. "Very well," replied the detective, just give me a receipt for the books and take them along. I must do my duty or give some adequate explanation of why I did not do it." It would be interesting to know whether the Kansans are peculiar in looting their capitol or in taking action to prevent the dirty business. There are other states in which legislative "souvenirs" are not quite unknown.

An Archduchess' Sympathy.

A pretty story is current just now at Vienna about Archduchess of the emperor. It seems that when traveling the other day from Linz to Vienna she noticed on the platform at Linz a 14-year old school boy crying bitterly. She had the conductor bring the lad to her compartment, and finding that he was proceeding to Vienna, to attend his father's funeral, she insisted on his traveling with her, paying the difference in his fare, as he had only a third-class ticket. During the trip she devoted herself to the task of comforting him, telling the boy among other things that she, too, had suffered much from the loss of a fondly loved parent, who had died suddenly and unexpectedly in a foreign land. It was only when the boy reached Vienna and was leaving that he discovered that the kind lady was Archduchess Valerie.—From Marquis de Fontenoy's Letter.

Window Washing No Bar.

Can a lawyer practicing at the bar be at the same time a manual worker? is a question that recently agitated the members of the legal profession in Hungary. A young briefless barrister, according to the Budapest Tagblatt, tired of waiting for clients, took to earning money by painting, decorating, window cleaning, paper hanging, spring cleaning and so forth in the provincial towns in the district in which he practiced at the bar. An effort was made to have his name erased from the roll of advocates, but the lord chief justice ruled that the young legal revolutionist was within his rights in earning money by honest manual labor.

A Cistern of Wine.

At Asti, in California, last year a cistern 104 feet long by 34 feet wide and 24 feet deep was formed in a hillside for the storage of wine. The immense tank was lined with concrete two feet thick and coated inside with a glaze as impermeable as glass. The capacity of the tank is 500,000 gallons.

BUILDING COLLAPSED.

Serious and Sudden Accident Occurs at Chicago.

RESULT IS SERIOUS.

Three Persons Are Dead, Three More Missing and Five Injured—Collapsed Caused by an Explosion of Dust.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Three men are known to have perished, three others are missing and five persons injured as the result of the collapse of a 6-story building at 139 and 141 West Lake street last night. Considerable damage was done to adjoining property and during the excitement it was reported that as many as 40 lives had been lost. About $200,000 damage was done.

The cause of the explosion is unknown, some claiming that there was an explosion in the store of S. F. Leonard, dealer in seeds, others saying that the walls fell without apparent cause. The generally accepted theory is that there was an explosion of dust in the seed store. The crash came with less than one minute's warning and Mr. Leonard, who noticed the walls shift slightly, called to his employees to run for their lives and without a seconds delay they all rushed for the street, the last of them getting through the doorway just in time.

After reaching the street the women employees of Leonard's rushed into the home of Mrs. Agnes Whelan. Mrs. Whelan noticed that the house was in danger and refused to allow the women to remain. Less than half a minute later the east wall fell and the house, together with the adjoining one, was buried beneath the ruins.

Adjoining Mrs. Whelan's house and next to the seed building store is a two-story frame structure occupied by Kelso Bros., dealers in paper. A number of young girls and two men were at work at the time and a panic followed in their efforts to escape. The two men smashed the windows and in that way rescued the girls.

The firemen working in the ruins found the body of a man under the debris of the office of the New England mills. It was too badly burned to admit of identification, but from the position in which it was found it is supposed to be that of Mr. Hanson, proprietor of the mills.

The dead are:

Joseph B. Doctor, barn foreman for the New England Milling Company.

Franklin S. Hanson, proprietor New England Milling company.

Henry Hilton, bookkeeper for the New England Milling company.

The missing are:

Charles Mullens, a peddler.

Unidentified woman, said to have been caught in the portion of the building wall that fell into the street and buried her beneath the debris.

C. Williams, an employee of the Leonard company.

The injured are:

Patrick Peyton, blown into the street by the concussion, cut and bruised about the face and arms.

W. B. Adams, saloon keeper, head badly cut.

Charles Henring, run over by frightened horses, badly hurt.

A. J. Kelly, hurt by falling bricks.

J. C. Taylor, hurt by falling bricks.

Judge Edwin Hobby Dead.

Houston, Nov. 2.—Judge Edwin Hobby died at his residence in this city after a brief illness. Judge Hobby was about 60 years of age and was a native of Florida. He came to Texas just before the breaking out of hostilities between the north and south and was a gallant Confederate soldier. He was a lawyer of eminent ability, having served as judge in the court of commission appeals and also judge for terms of the Ninth judicial district. He had also served in the state Senate from Tyler county. He was for a time master in chancery appointed by the Federal government for the Indian Territory. Most of his life was spent in eastern Texas.

Bryan Meets With Accident.

Omaha, Nov. 2.—In order to meet an engagement to speak at Ravenna, W. J. Bryan was driven across the country from Loup City, 32 miles, three relays of horses being employed. When about five miles from the start the carriage was upset over an embankment and Mr. Bryan and the other occupants were thrown out. All were more or less bruised, though not seriously. At Ravenna Mr. Bryan spoke in a lumber yard for an hour with the temperature at 12 degrees above zero and the water in a pitcher on the speaker's stand freezing.

No Clew to the Robbery.

Denison, Tex., Nov. 2.—The express robbery committed in this city Tuesday night on the Katy, is as much a mystery as it was that night. Messenger Concannon is better and there is hope that he will recover, though he is still in a serious condition. Several theories about the robbery have been advanced but no clew that leads to anything definite.

Killing at Ozona.

San Angelo, Tex., 2.—Will Hitchcock was shot and killed in a shooting affair at Ozona. The remains were shipped to Lampasas for interment.

Brooklyn Passes Gibraltar.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The Brooklyn has sailed from Gibraltar for Port Said enroute to Manila.

NOBART'S SUCCESSOR.

Grant or Root Will Be Likely to Get the Nomination.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Vice President Hobart's announcement through members of his family of his retirement from public life will make it necessary for the Republican national convention to choose another running mate for President McKinley, should the president be nominated next year. It will also necessitate the choice of another president pro tempore by the senate to preside over its deliberations until a new vice president takes office. Republican politicians are practically agreed that Mr. Hobart's successor next year must come from New York state.

Senator Platt was in the city and it is understood that candidates were discussed. If Governor Roosevelt had not so clearly indicated his disinclination to accept the second place on the ticket, he would be an important factor in the speculations as to the candidates. His nomination is regarded, however, as being practically out of the question and the two men most discussed are Secretary Root and Frederick Grant.

One of them receives the Republican nomination may depend on the fortunes of war in the Philippines. There are men who have served with General Grant since his appointment to the army, who believe that he has inherited to a great degree the military genius of his father, and that all he needs is an opportunity. He has not thus far had a chance to show whether these opinions are well founded, but if he should command the troops in some brilliant action against the Filipinos or perhaps direct the final movements in overwhelming the insurrection, there is little doubt that he would be the man selected. Should this opportunity not come to General Grant and should the Philippine war end successfully within the next few months the nomination would probably be given to Secretary Root who infused new life into the war department and whose zeal in enlisting and sending forward reinforcements has made it possible for General Otis to undertake an aggressive campaign. There are many indications already that he may be the administration candidate.

Mr. Hobart will be greatly missed in the senate. Probably never in the history of the country, and certainly not in recent years, has a presiding officer of the senate been so greatly admired and respected by senators regardless of party lines. Mr. Hobart has made an excellent presiding officer, mastering the details of the senate's business, rules and traditions and none of his rulings has been questioned.

Upon the occasion of the vice president's first absence after the beginning of each congress the senate elects a president pro tempore who occupies the chair whenever the vice president is away. Senator Frye of Maine was the president pro tempore in the last congress, and he will without doubt be reelected for the new congress and will be the real presiding officer of the senate until March 4, 1901.

HOBART APPEARS BETTER.

Peterson, N. J., Nov. 2.—The condition of Vice President Hobart was unchanged this morning. He slept throughout Wednesday night without awakening, and his pulse was regular and he appeared to be gaining strength.

AN EVENTFUL CAREER.

New York, Nov. 2.—Colonel James E. Kerrigan died in Brooklyn, aged 72 years. He served in the Mexican war. He was a representative in congress in 1861, and when the civil war broke out he became a colonel of the Twenty-fifth New York volunteers. In 1867 he commanded the vessel Erins hope, which landed arms and munitions of war on the Irish coast. His next adventure was with the Walker expedition in Nicaragua. He became aide-de-camp of one of the towns, and when Walker was shot he was surrounded by enemies. He drove all the prominent Nicaraguans in the town into a cathedral, filled the cellar with gunpowder and then exploded his own liberty by threatening to blow up the building and everyone in it. He went to the Klondike last spring, but was taken ill at Dawson and obliged to return. He succumbed to a surgical operation.
